

Ernst & Young Announces Tornier President & CEO Douglas Kohrs is the Master Entrepreneur Of The Year 2012 Award Winner for the Upper Midwest

Minneapolis, MN – June 20, 2012

Award Recognizes Entrepreneurial Excellence in Healthcare Category

Tornier, Inc., the U.S. operating subsidiary of Tornier NV (NASDAQ: TRNX) announced that Douglas W. Kohrs, President and CEO of Tornier, a global medical device company focused on providing surgical solutions to orthopaedic extremity specialists, received the Ernst & Young Master Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2012 Award in the healthcare category for the Upper Midwest. The award recognizes outstanding entrepreneurs who demonstrate excellence and extraordinary success in such areas as innovation, financial performance and personal commitment to their businesses and communities. Kohrs was selected by an independent panel of judges, and the award was presented at a special gala on June 14, 2012 in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

"This award recognizes the unrelenting efforts of Tornier's 800-plus employees around the world who make it their mission everyday to exceed the expectations of the marketplace and maintain the trust of the surgeons for whom we develop life-restoring products," said Kohrs. "Ernst & Young undertakes a comprehensive evaluation of nominated companies, and the recognition of Tornier puts us in excellent company, for which we are grateful and proud."

As an Upper Midwest award winner, Kohrs is now eligible for consideration for the National Entrepreneur Of The Year 2012 Award. Award winners in several national categories, as well as the National Entrepreneur Of The Year Overall Award winner, will be announced at the annual awards gala in Palm Springs, California, on November 17, 2012. The awards are the culminating event of the Ernst & Young Strategic Growth Forum®, the nation's most prestigious gathering of high-growth, market-leading companies.
