1. Important information and who we are

   Purpose of this privacy notice

This privacy notice describes how Warburg Pincus LLC (and certain affiliates) treats personal information we collect through your use of www.warburgpincus.com website. This privacy notice is not intended to override any other privacy notice we provide you in specific circumstances.

If you have any questions about this privacy notice or how we treat your personal information, please contact us at:

PersonalData@warburgpincus.com
Warburg Pincus LLC, 450 Lexington Avenue, Floor 32, New York, NY 10017, U.S.A.

Third-party links

   This website may include links to third-party websites with their own privacy notices. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites and we encourage you to read their privacy notices carefully.

If you are in the European Union or European Economic Area you can click HERE to find out more about your rights in relation to your personal information that we handle.

2. What personal information do we collect?

We may collect, use, store, transfer, and share different kinds of information about you through our website, such as:

   • Technical Information, including your internet protocol (IP) address, login data, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system, and platform on the devices you use to access this website.

   • Usage Information, namely, information about how you use our website including how long you spend on it, which pages you visit, and we can determine links that led you to our website.

We also may collect, use, and share Aggregated Data such as statistical or demographic data for any purpose. Aggregated Data may be derived from your personal information but does not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate your Usage Information to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website feature.
3. How is your personal information collected?

We collect personal information through:

- Automated technologies or interactions. As you interact with our website, we may automatically collect Technical Information about your equipment and browsing. We collect this personal information by using cookies and server logs.

- Third parties or publicly available sources. We may receive personal information about you from various third parties as set out below.

- Technical Information through the tools ensuring functionality and security of the website and web analytics tools.

4. How do we use your personal information?

We will only use your personal information when the law allows us to. We use your personal information to ensure functionality and security of the website through the use of web analytics tools (cookies).

When you visit our website, you will have the opportunity to accept or reject certain cookies. You can also set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. Some web browsers may transmit “do-not-track” (DNT) signals. We currently do not respond to DNT settings in your web browser.

We use cookies only for administering the website and ensuring website security. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this website may become inaccessible or not function properly.

5. How do we share your personal information?

We may share your personal information with the parties set out below:

- External Third Parties:
  - Analytics. We may use analytics tools provided by Google to help us understand how people use our website. You can learn more about how Google collects and uses information as a part of its tools HERE.

  - Protection of our clients and services. We may disclose your personal information to third parties such as law enforcement if we believe disclosure is necessary under applicable law or appropriate to prevent harm or loss, or in connection with an investigation of suspected or actual illegal activity.
6. How long do we use your personal information for?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfill any lawful purposes we collected it for. In most cases, this will mean that we keep personal information about you for the period of two years.

7. How do we secure your personal information?

We use reasonable technical, administrative and physical security measures to protect your personal information. We of course cannot guarantee that any information, during transmission through the Internet or while stored on our systems or otherwise in our care, will be absolutely safe from unauthorized access or use.

8. Children’s privacy

Our services are not directed at individuals under the age of 18. We do not knowingly collect information from children under the age of 18.

9. Changes to this privacy notice

We may change this privacy notice from time to time and will make it available on this website. If you are also an investor in a Warburg Pincus fund, when the changes to the privacy policy affect you materially, we will update you by posting the changed privacy notice on the Investor Reporting Portal with a new “Last Updated” date or other method that is your designated communication preference.

10. Information Collected from Individuals in the European Union and European Economic Area

Purposes for which we will use your personal information

The table below describes how we may use your personal information and on what basis. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate.

Note that we may process your personal information on more than one basis depending on the purpose for which we are using your information. Please contact us if you have questions or would like further information.
